Sauvignon Blanc: Barter and Trade, Ancient Lakes, Columbia Valley, WA; 2018 38

Made by Andrew Jones at Field Recordings in Paso Robles, this Washington State sourced wine is racy and focused with a complex bouquet of lemon-lime citrus, apple and pear. On the palate a grassiness intermixes with the same rich fruit notes from the nose. Finishing with cleansing acidity, fresh and juicy.

Chardonnay: Fossil Point, Edna Valley, CA; 2016 40

Located less than five miles from our winery, Fossil Point is a rugged headland with sweeping views of the coastline from Port San Luis to the Guadalupe Dunes. The 2016 vintage blooms with citrus blossom and white peach aromas, with tasting notes of lemon verbena and pastry crème.

Gewurztraminer: Brandburg, Elkton, OR; 2014 44

The fruit aromas in the nose are dominated by savory lemon curd and grapefruit with spicy cardamom and honeysuckle rising up as interesting sub plots and lychee begins to appear with airing. The citrus fruits and spice notes dominate the taste with a pleasant touch of honeyed sweetness that fades to a tart finish.

Reds

Pinot Noir: J Lohr, Falcon’s Perch, Monterey, CA; 2018 40

“The 2018 J. Lohr Estates Falcon’s Perch showcases the best of cool climate Monterey County Pinot Noir. Wild strawberry and sage on the nose are followed by bright rhubarb, camphor and dried cherry on the finish.” –Steve Peck, director of winemaking

Red Blend: Bedrock Wine Co., The Whole Shebang Red Blend, Sonoma County, CA; NV 42

Multi-vintage blend of declassified fruit from Morgan Twain-Peterson MW’s Bedrock Vineyard in Sonoma County. Mainly Zinfandel. Mid ruby. Thyme, baked, mixed fruit, dusty minerality and some white-pepper tones, with dark-chocolate and clove.

Petite Sirah: Terra d’Oro, El Dorado County, CA; 2015 48

A dark and opulent aubergine color, the wine has a powerful nose of sweet oak vanilla and bright, juicy fruit. The palate is focused with crisp and captivating flavors of ripe blueberry and jammy blackberry cobbler, with a warm oaky spice note on the finish.

Cabernet Sauvignon: One Stone, Paso Robles, Central Coast, CA; 2017 48

One Stone Cabernet Sauvignon opens with classic varietal aromas of dark fruit, black olive and graphite with notes of toasty oak and toffee. The palate is full and round, showing generous currant and black fruit flavors with suggestions of cedar, mint, spice and savory tobacco. Finely textured tannins linger on a smooth, dry finish.

Whites

Viognier: Novelty Hill, Stillwater Creek Vineyard, Columbia Valley, WA; 2017 62

A fresh, pretty wine with generous floral aromas and a hint of spice. Juicy pear and apricot flavors stretch across a long finish. This is a lively wine with just the right amount of acidity. - Mike Januik, Winemaker 94% Viognier, 6% Roussanne, 397 Cases made.

Chardonnay: Oberon, Los Carneros, Sonoma, CA; 2018 59

This Los Carneros Chardonnay is expressive and approachable, showcasing balanced fruit, lingering acidity and rich flavors and aromas of caramelized white pear, fresh Fuji and golden delicious apple, apple blossoms and torched crème brulee.

Reds

Pinot Noir: La Follette, Russian River Valley, Sonoma, CA; 2017 60

A wild bouquet of raspberry, chicory and tuberose plays against earthier notes of juniper berry and forest floor. With time in glass, warm sandalwood emerges. A soft entry transitions quickly to red plum and bright, fruity acidity. Supple tannins frame late-palate notes of oak spice, bark and tamari. An aromatically layered and inviting Pinot Noir; nuanced and satisfying. Robert Parker 92 Points

Grenache: Skinner, El Dorado County, CA; 2016. 65

Very light cherry and berry aromas are followed by mild fruit flavors and a slightly gripping texture in this medium-bodied wine. It is delicate and restrained, with very good acidity and taut balance. This wine comes across as light and brisk, with a texture that’s just generous enough to mellow the cool spiciness and floral strawberry flavors. 92 Points Wine & Spirits Magazine

Zinfandel Blend, Bedrock Wine Co., Old Vine, Sonoma Valley, CA; 2018 62

Medium ruby-purple, the 2018 Bedrock Vineyard Heritage opens with fantastic perfume: ripe peach, sliced blueberries, warm red cherries, underbrush, violet and dried tangerine peel with nuances of crushed stone, dried hollyhock and exotic spices. Medium-bodied, it floods the mouth with singularly perfumed fruit layers, with a chewy frame and wicked freshness, finishing long and evolving. 94 points Wine Advocate.

Cabernet Sauvignon: Quilt, Napa, CA; 2017 75

A seamless blend of cassis, hazelnut, cocoa, blackberry preserves and charred meat with complex notes of dark licorice, stewed rhubarb, strawberry, spice and vanilla. Rich and satisfying on the palate with decadent chocolate brownie, yogurt and molasses flavors in perfect balance with higher-toned fruit emphasis.
